OVERVIEW

This is a rare opportunity to experience authentic Bushman culture, in the heart of the stunning Okavango Delta

Who better to show you around than descendants of the first people who lived here. Staying in a bushmen owned camp, you will see their ancient tracking methods in action, getting you close to the wildlife here. The bushmen will also proudly share their culture with you - be that singing and dancing round the campfire or seeing survival skills in action on a bush walk. No visit to the Delta would be complete without a traditional mokoro (canoe) ride and there are many other activities on offer here too. This is a unique chance to learn more about both the wildlife and the people, who call this beautiful, serene, place home.

FULL ITINERARY

DAY 1 - OKAVANGO DELTA

You will be met by a Big Safari Company representative at Maun International Airport and transferred by charter flight to Bushman Plains Camp.

Bushman Plains is an authentic, intimate camp in the heart of the iconic Okavango Delta; a huge wilderness area dominated by peaceful waterways and stunning landscapes. The camp is operated and owned by Bushmen and Bushmen guides and trackers work as a team to deliver exclusive game viewing. Bushmen from Gudigwa Village visit the camp to share their culture with guests, via storytelling, music and dancing and you can also learn about survival skills and traditions on cultural walks.

Included meals: Dinner

Accommodation: Bushman Plains Camp

Optional activities: helicopter flight across the Delta with a bushman guide, who will explain rock paintings at Tsodilo Hills or a hot air balloon ride.

DAY 2 - OKAVANGO DELTA

Game drives are in open-sided vehicles, and feature a guide and tracker team, with the tracker greatly enhancing the experience by being able to focus on finding and following fresh predator tracks. Night game drives increase the chance of seeing wildlife during their most active time - sometimes the lions that are sleeping all day get on the move once darkness falls.

Included meals: Breakfast, lunch, dinner

Accommodation: Bushman Plains Camp

Optional activities: helicopter flight across the Delta with a bushman guide, who will explain rock paintings at Tsodilo Hills or a hot air balloon ride.

DAY 3 - OKAVANGO DELTA

Unlike most safari camps our drives do not have to be confined to staying in the vehicle. You are with the masters of the bush, and they will share with you their phenomenal tracking skills. If you are keen, you can take to foot along with your guide/tracker team to learn about the tracks they are following.

Included meals: Breakfast, lunch, dinner
